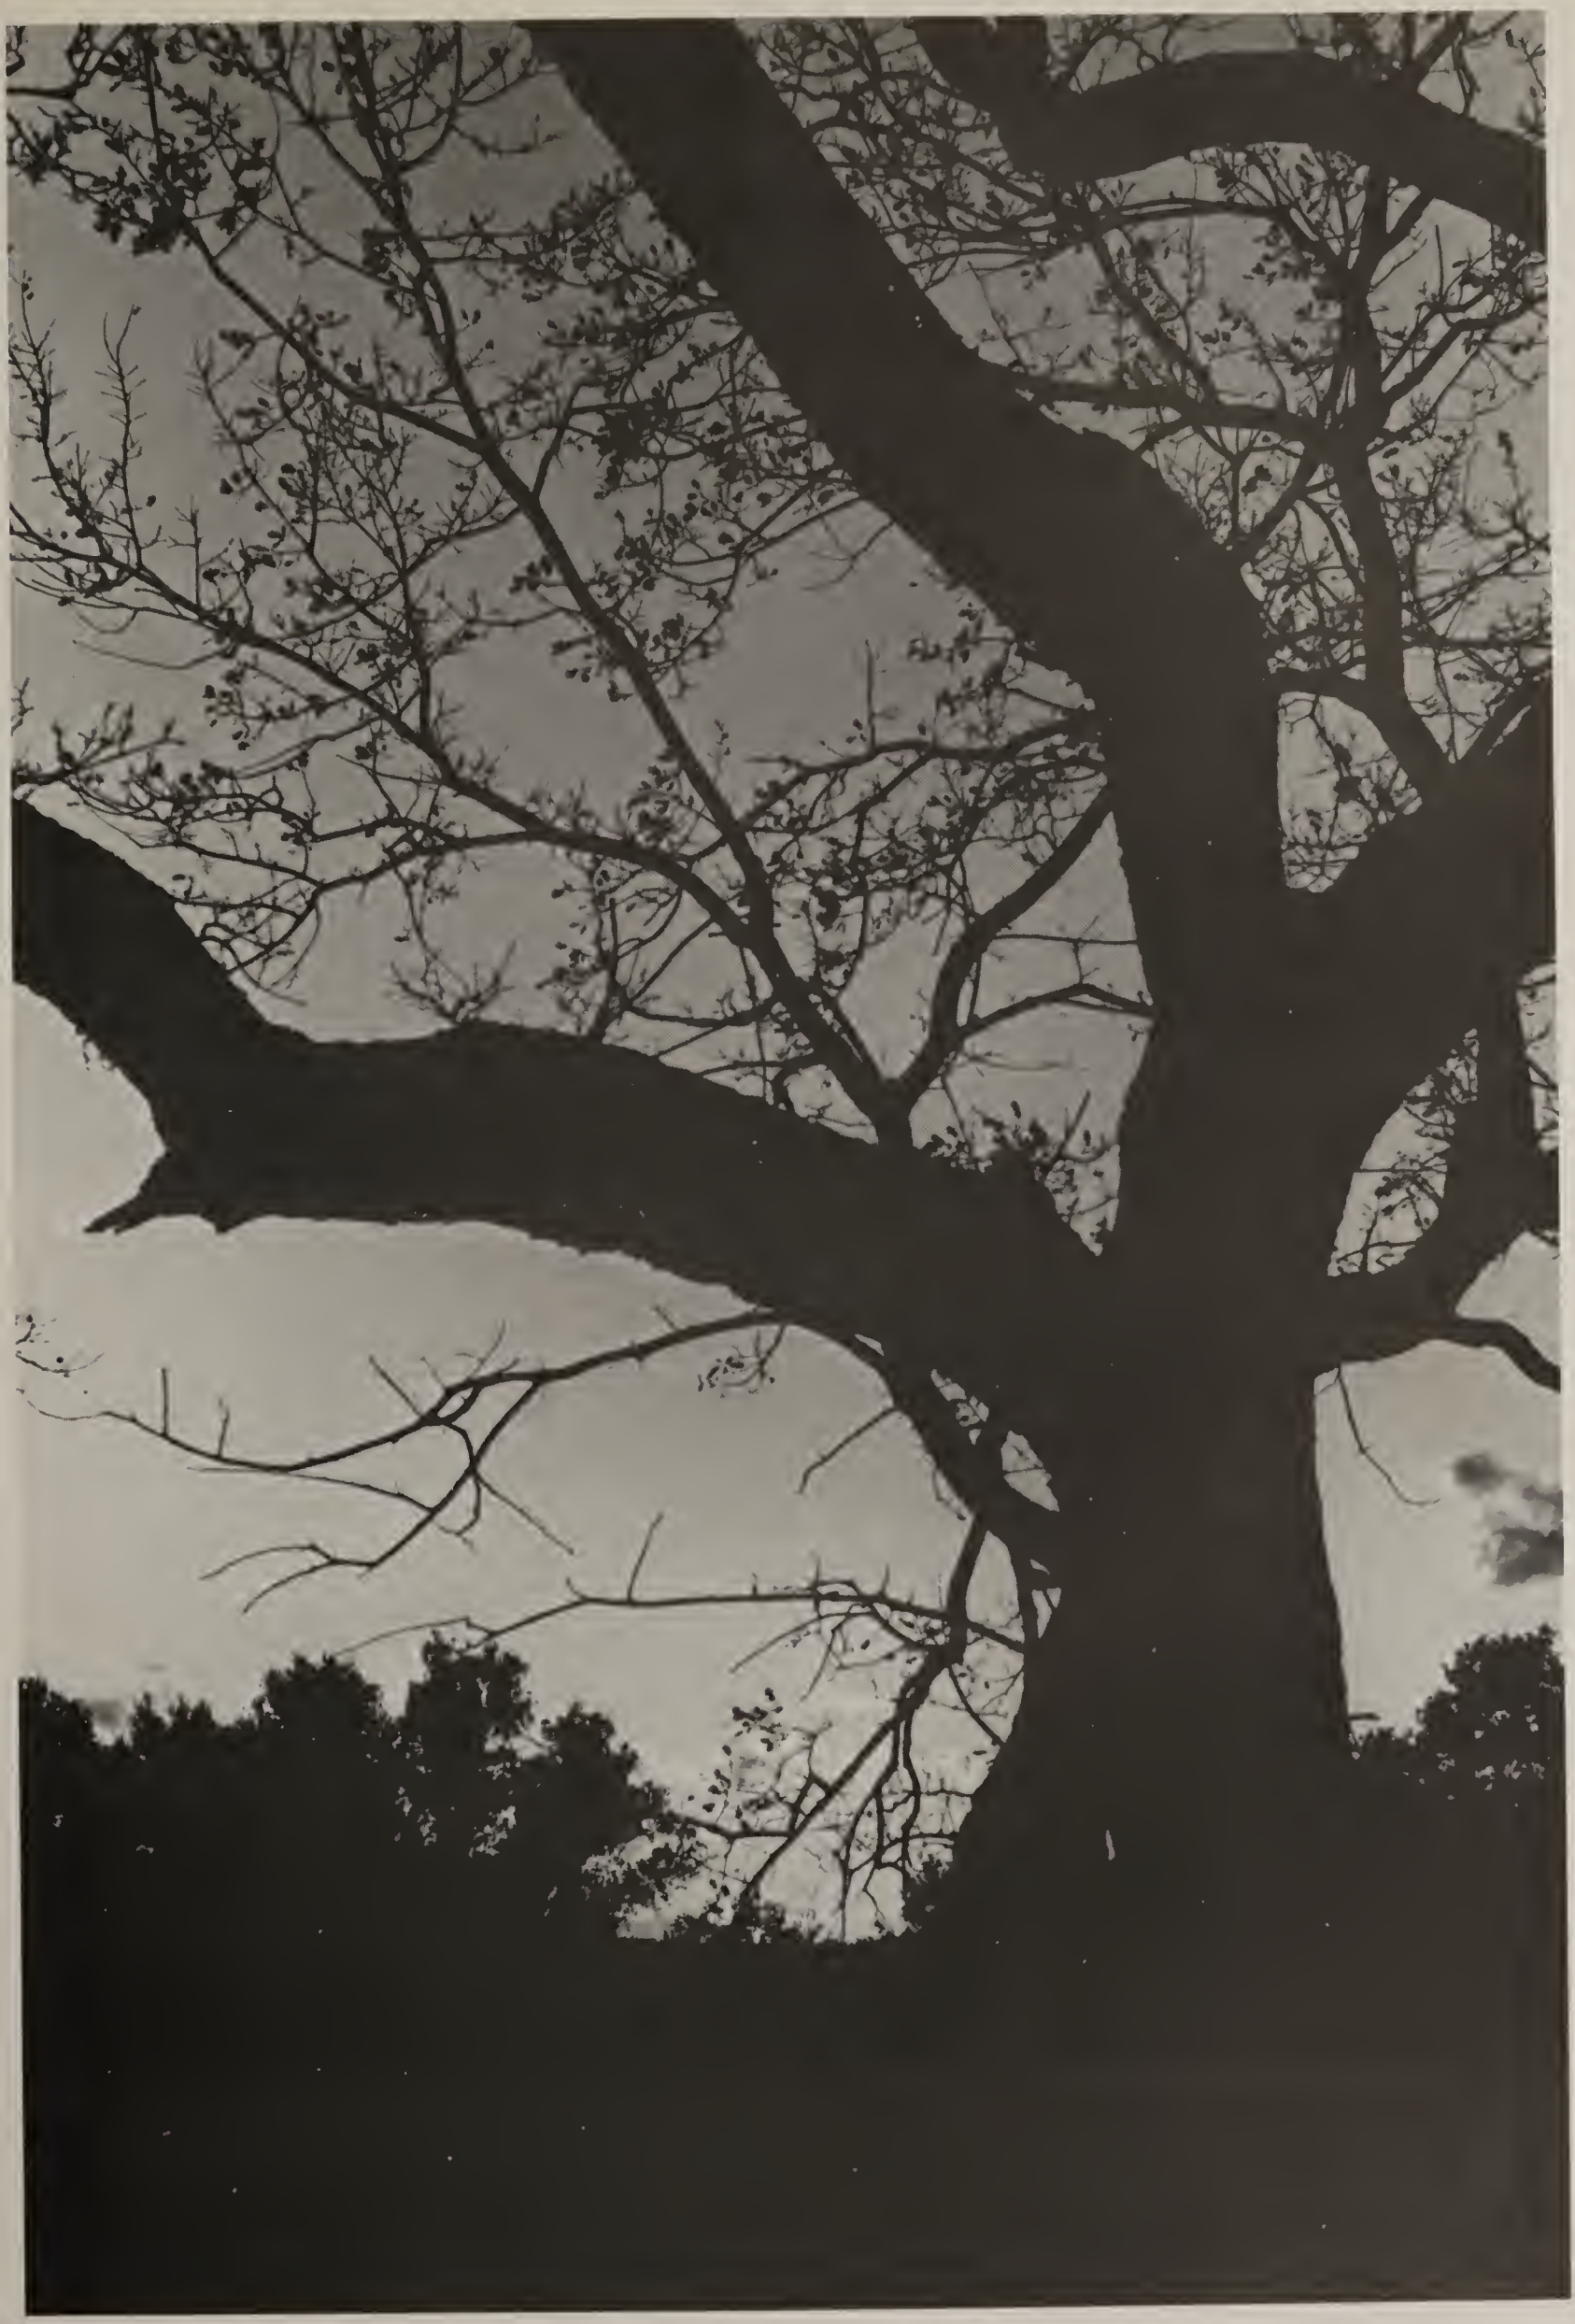
LOCUST VALLEY, NEW YORK

A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere. Before him, I may think aloud.

Ralph Waldo Emerson



FRIENDSHIP

by Melita Rines

Friendship means a lot to me. It is something that will hold many people together. Friendship means that these people will stick together until what is wrong is corrected. If they fail to stick together then their friendship is false.

The Moon

The Moon is my friend,
The Moon sometimes bends.
It gives off light,
And is really bright.
And that's why he's my friend.

A TESTIMONY

A year begins anew,
Some wrung out from an old sponge
Others come pouring forth from different faucets
Into a pail of friendliness.
Everyone different, everyone alike
Flowing through the days
With laughter and joy.
Happiness pervades everywhere.

A trip to New Jersey . . .

We were given a week to share our minds, our concerns, our deepest thoughts, and just our lives. We found new friendships, renewed some and even lost some. We depended on each other for comfort and laughter and making the whole trip work. All we have left are eighty-two closer people and many happy memories that will never fade. And that's a fantastic start.

First Row: Robert Copp, Chris Marcu, Kathy Neisloss, Ralph Mernit, Scott Boege, Peter Zullo, John Silbersack, Kate Hogerton, Chris Rising, Beth Wieman.
Second Row: Neal Fowler, Henry Picoli, Joe Mascioli, Tony Marvullo, Cliff Gardner, Woody Simes, John Shipman, Peter Thomas, Colleen Connell, Kit Bosse, Mary Lou Viscardi, Nina Vassiliev.
Third Row: Mark Howard, Brian Cressey, Dick Nidds, Ryder Kern, Jeff Hull, Jon Kaufman, Mike Kane, Scott Burkhardt, Frank Erickson, Linda Stuurman, Aileen Potter, Mimi Bohner, Susan Nappa, Ann Rusnack, Melinda Abood.

TENTH GRADE

We are very many people
the intently concerned the careless and free
the creative the optimistically eager the apathetic loner.
We are all going our own ways together.

To be young, gifted and Black,
Oh what a lovely precious dream.
There's a world waiting for you,
Yours is the quest that's just begun.

When you're feelin' real low,
There's a great truth that you should know.
When you're young, gifted and Black,
Your soul's intact.

To be young, gifted and Black
Is where it's at.

Our giggling debater concealing her thoughts

Fate has planned those seldom visits that Since all of her dieting most of her weight

Big eyes and a graceful walk, although

NANETTE STEVENSON

If the sign of life is in your face,
He who responds to it
Will feel secure and fit
As when, in a friendly place,
Sure of hearty care,
A traveler gladly waits.
Though it may not taste like food
And he may not see the fare
Or hear a sound of plates,
How endless it is and how good!

Grow wild according to thy nature, like these sedges and brakes, which will never become English hay. Let the thunder rumble; what if it threaten ruin to farmers' crops? that is not its errand to thee. Take shelter under the cloud, while they flee to carts and sheds. Let not to get a living be thy trade, but thy sport. Enjoy the land, but own it not...

CATHY KAUFMAN

"You are beautiful, but you are empty, he went on. One could not die for you. To be sure, an ordinary passerby would think that my rose looked just like you — the rose that belongs to me. But in herself alone she is more important than all the hundreds of your other roses; because it is she that I have watered; because it is she that I have put under the glass globe; because it is she that I have sheltered behind the screen; because it is for her that I have killed the caterpillars (except the two or three that we saved to become butterflies); because it is she that I have listened to, when she grumbled, or boasted, or even sometimes when she said nothing. Because she is my rose."

LYNN DUDGEON

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth;
Then took the other, as just
as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and
wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there Had worn them really about the same,
And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.
I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood,
and I — I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

PAMELA FREDERICK

Let the music surround you and
:ake you where you want to go.

Robert Smith

The letter Pam read on Phineas' stairs was good, but the best part was "good enough?" A booger shuffled up the marble hallway in his Addidas sneakers and said, "Ciao! I'm Cat Mother. Do you want a piece of gum?"

"No, thanks; I quit."

"C'est la vie," as Hum would say. She thanked him again with her warm smile, and he could sense her pamminess.

Suddenly a bellowing shout of Camelot rang down the stairs, questioning the balance between love and hate.

DAVID COPITHORNE

"Cop" —
A package of brain and brawn wrapped up with sincerity and understanding,
Math class siestas,
Our Mr. America who never seemed to do his homework,
Independent, yet closely being followed.
Oblivious? Not really.
Every mother's son,
"Quiet down, please!"
The "31 Machine" that never stops, Quietly striving for something more than his best.

SHARON BARBANO

"Sharon"
Our eternal cheerleader
A thing for football coaches
"Do you know what I think? I think . . ."
We may never know the profound world of Sharon Barbano.
Exuberance, "sans souci," and a smile.
Following the strong silent one —
"Have you seen . . .?" Sharon sees the complicated world in her uncomplicated way and always finds happiness.
"All the moments of calm the Islands of peace whose magic I felt behind the enchanted distance, nor do I ask to set foot there again."

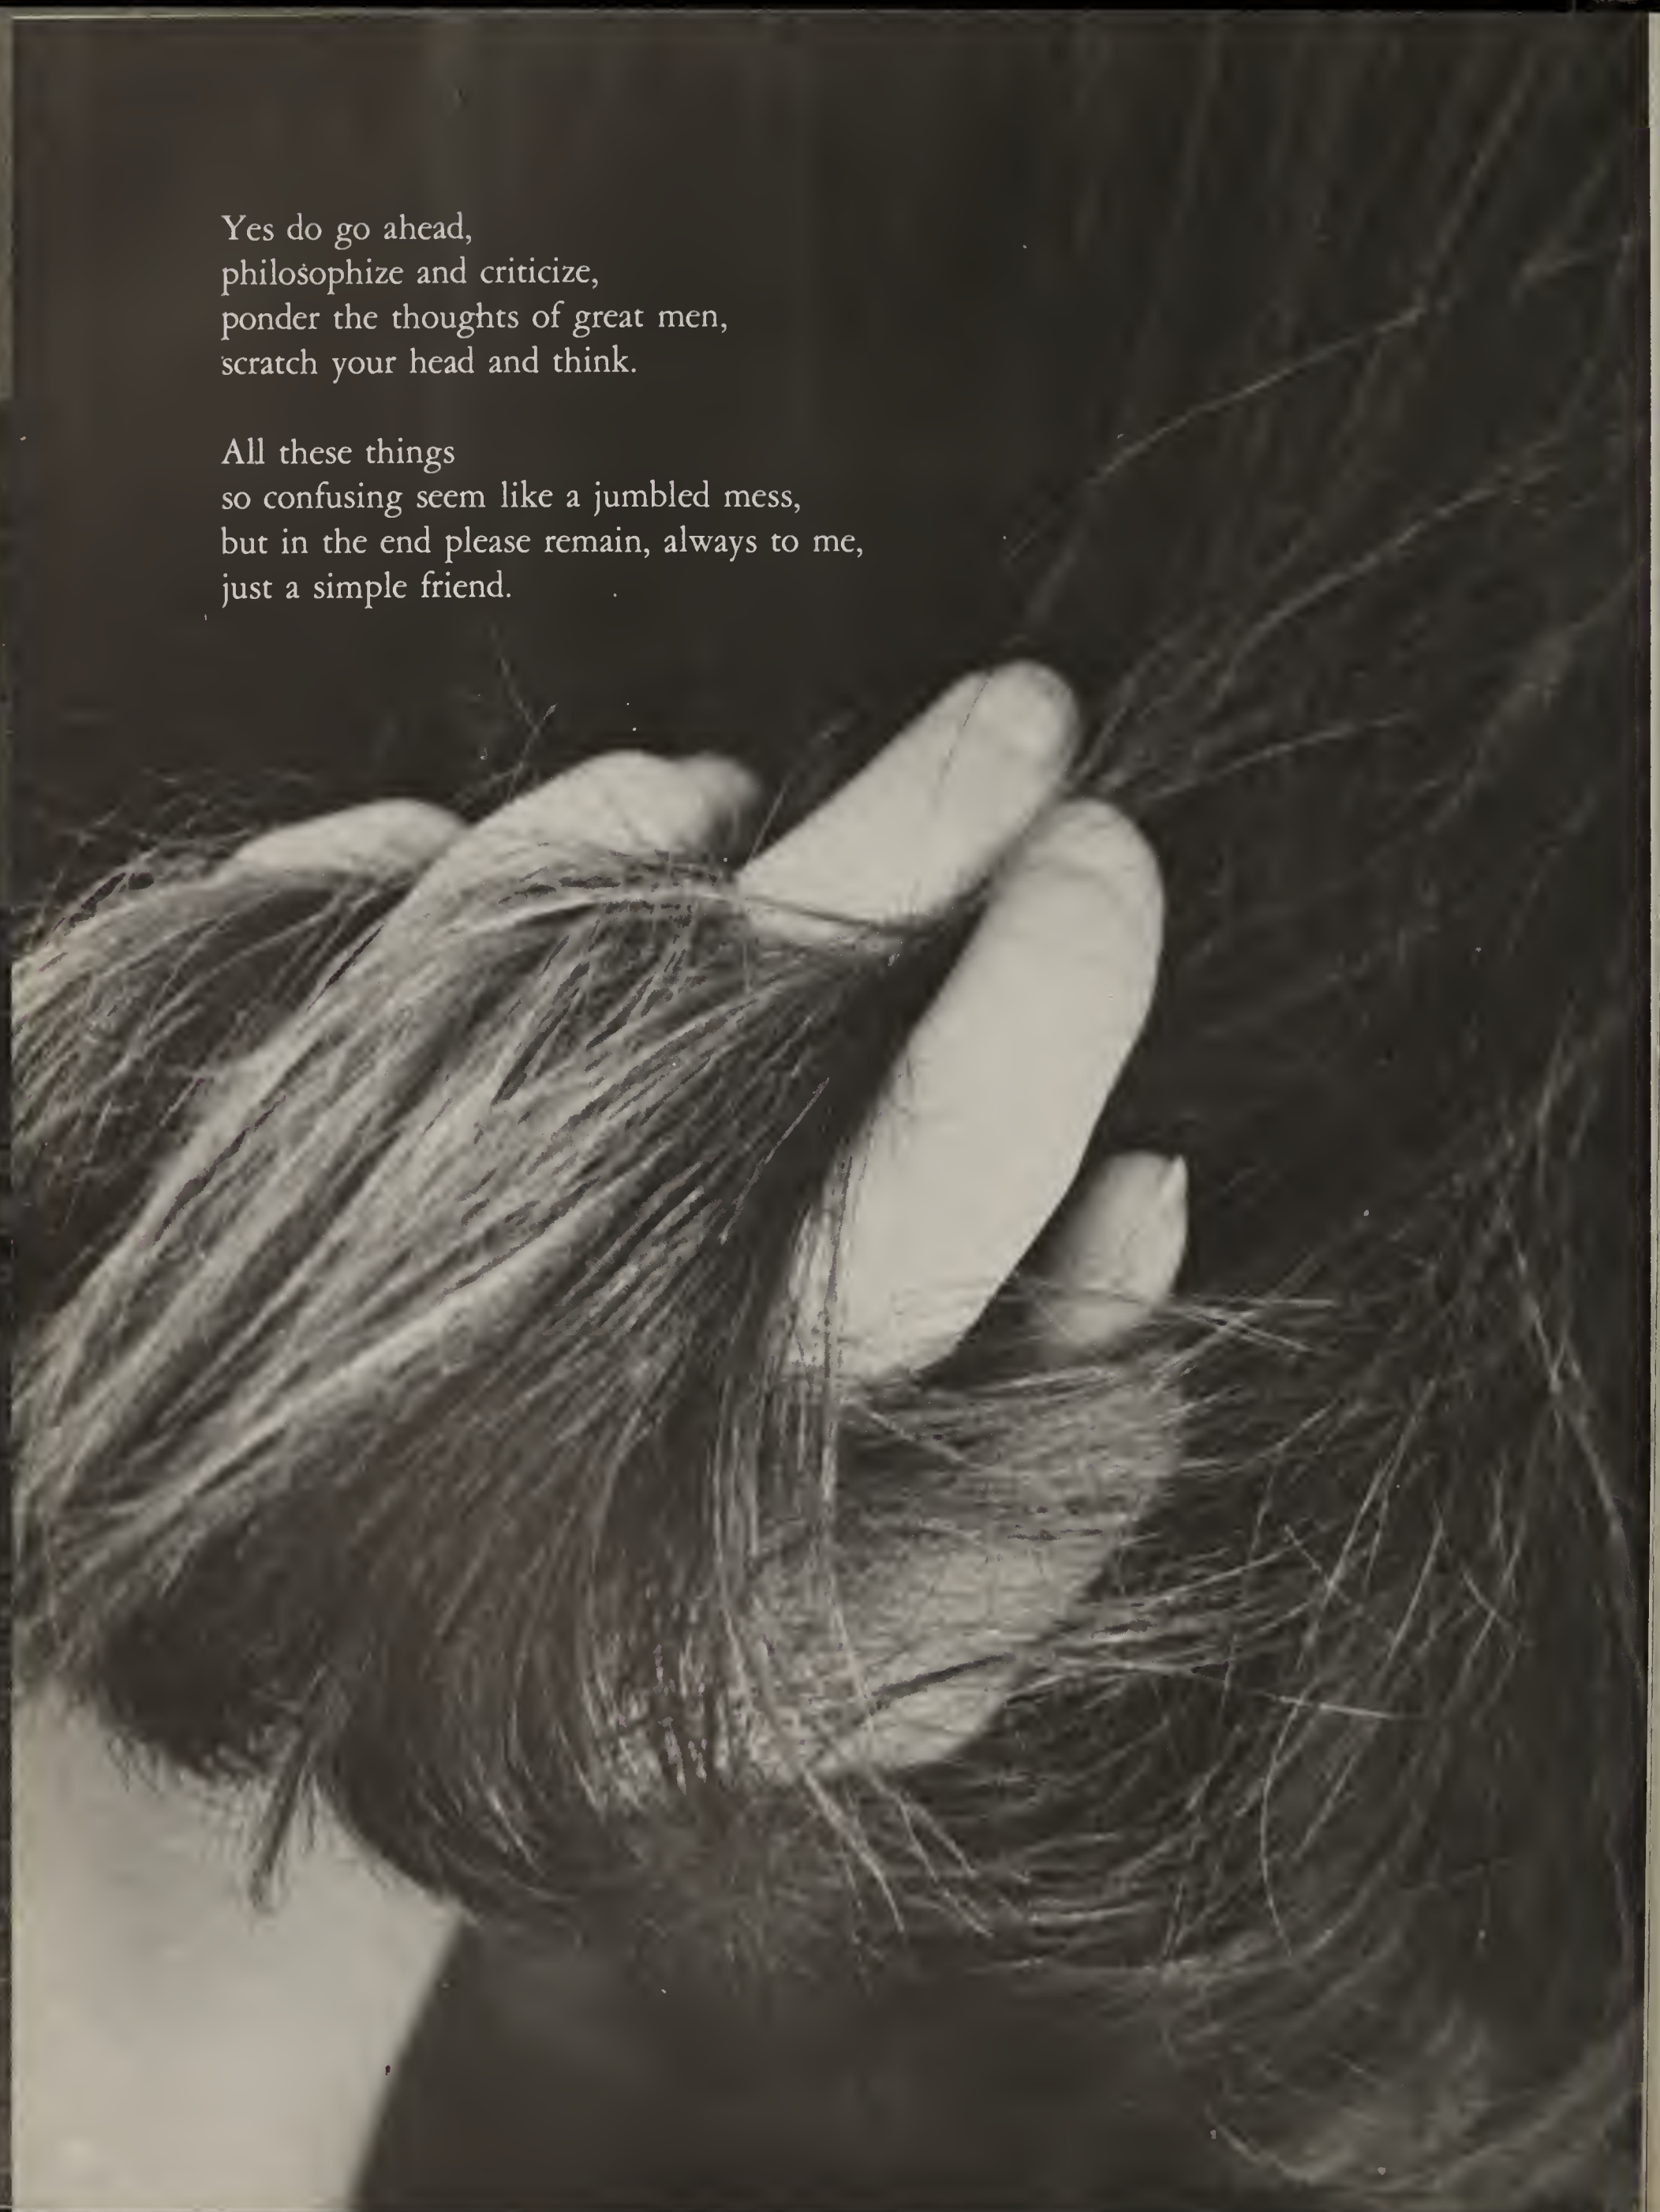
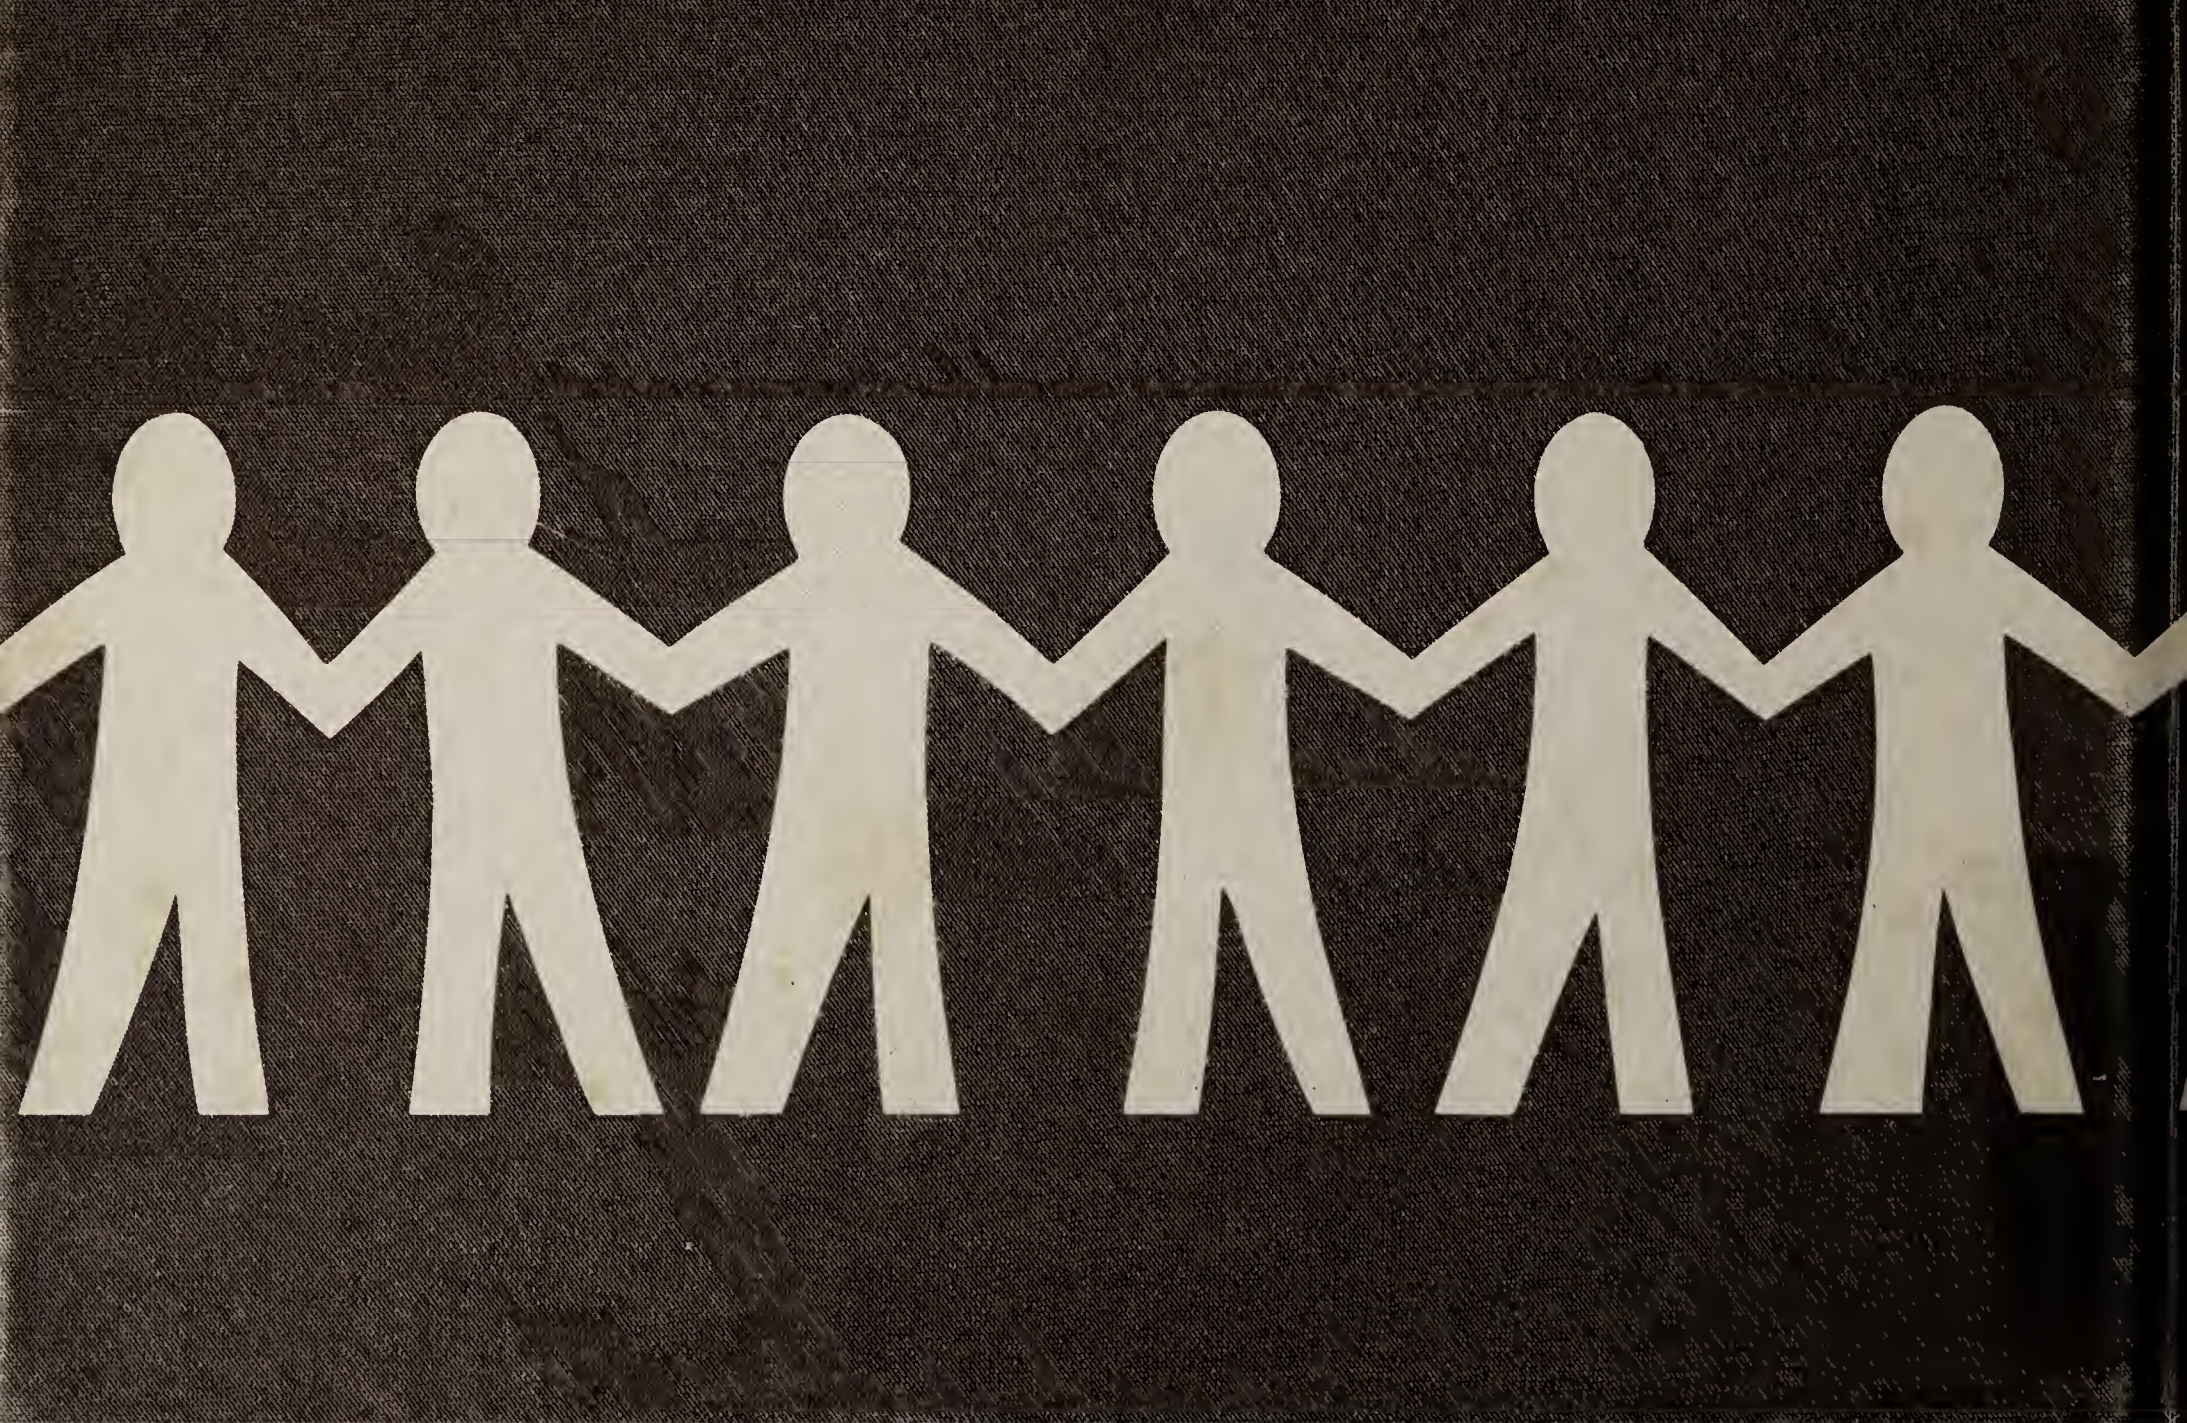
Our special thanks to Chris Gallagher, Craig Kronman, Jeff Jordon, Bob Eden, Mrs. Abbe, Nanette Stevenson and all other photographers.

We also wish to thank Mr. Lopachin, Mrs. Whittendale, Jeff Haydu, Rick Nunez, Jeannie Bunnell, all contributing seniors and Mr. Erickson for their faithful help.

Some of the senior portraits composed and photographed by Milan Karen of the LaMoitte-te-unissen Studio, Manhasset, L. I., N. Y.

Yes do go ahead,
philosophize and criticize,
ponder the thoughts of great men,
scratch your head and think.




All these things
so confusing seem like a jumbled mess,
but in the end please remain, always to me,
just a simple friend.
